Operation Disneyland

Senior Parents Plan Gala Fashion Show Feb. 28

This year the Seniors of Albany High school voted to hold their all-night party at Disneyland. Because of the class' over-all enthusiasm and willingness to raise as much money as they could towards the trip, their parents, whose job it is to organize the party, have agreed to help them towards this aim. The cost per student, which includes plane fare to and from Disneyland, all rides while in Disneyland, several dance bands to dance to, and souvenir pictures, is $40.

Since school started this year, the Seniors, headed by class president Keiko Tamura, have undertaken many money-making projects: cake sale, soft drinks at the games, a benefit performance given by folk singer Stan Wilson, a paper drive, to mention a few. As a result, they have earned almost $1,500. However, even with the parents paying for part of the cost, that is, $20, there is still almost $2,000 to be earned before June.

Thus, the Seniors' Parents Committee, headed by General Chairman Larry and Betty Saler, with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tamura, Mr. and Mrs. William Radcliffe, Mrs. Nancy Maberry, and Mrs. Eloise Dunlap as co-chairmen, are planning to hold a fashion show, with proceeds to go to the Disneyland Party Fund.

Spearheaded by Antoinette Stallone, and with Leah Radcliffe as chairman, plans are well underway. It will be held at the Veterans' Memorial building on Friday, Feb. 28. Following the Albany tradition of community participation, it is to have something for everyone; a happy hour, the newest spring fashions, refreshments, pretty girls, door prizes, plus chances to win three great prizes by a raffle.

If the many parents of seniors that have volunteered to help with this project are any indication, this show should be well received and give the Seniors the financial boost that they need to get them to their never-to-be-forgotten party at Disneyland.

Guest Speaker For Methodists

The Rev. Alvern Vom Steeg will be the guest speaker at Albany United Methodist church this coming Sunday morning.

Rev. Vom Steeg has just completed training for missionary service. He will be leaving shortly for work in South America. For five years he was Pastor of Christ United Methodist church in Sacramento. Under his leadership this congregation has become one of the strong churches of the California-Nevada Annual Conference.

He will speak first at a 7:30 a.m. breakfast for men of all ages. He will speak at the 11 a.m. morning worship. Following worship there will be a family potluck dinner.

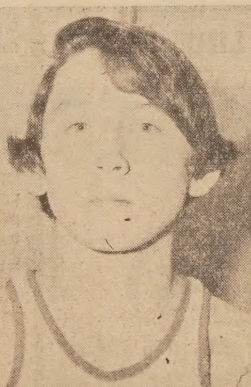

Non-members who would like to come to the breakfast or the potluck dinner are requested to telephone the church in advance, 526-7346 or 525-7312. Everyone is welcome to the worship service.

Rev. P. T. Kelsey High 12 Speaker

The Rev. Preston T. Kelsey will speak at Albany High Twelve club Friday noon, Jan. 31. The subject is "Youth—In England—New Hampshire—California." Rev. Kelsey was Curate in charge of the Youth Club, Redcar, England, 1962-63. Before coming to California, he served for two years as Episcopal Chaplain at Dartmouth College, N.H. His present service as Rector of St. Alban's church is largely devoted to youth programs.

Rev. Kelsey is a charming speaker. His intimate service with youth provides an authentic background for this program. A native of New Hampshire, he lives in Berkeley with his wife and four lively children.

Athlete of Week

ALBANY BOOSTERS CLUB Athlete of the Week for Jan. 13-17 is a freshman basketball player, Doug Parker. He was cited for his outstanding defense play and hustle, both in games and in practice. In both games played this week he was leading scorer and rebounder. Well done, Doug!

Albany Loses Lindhs

Carl Lindh Family Leaves for Pacific Feb. 1

"The whole family is thrilled." That's the way Mrs. Billie Lindh answered when asked how they feel about pulling up stakes in Albany and moving to Saipan.

She said they've read everything in print about their new home, which has a population of 89,000 and a settlement of about 50 American families.

The federal government, Carl Lindh's new employer, feels it is important for American families to try to live the same as the Saipanese, Mrs. Lindh said. For that reason she does not expect to have servants. The children will attend Micronesian schools with American teachers.

Carl, who is a native of Albany, attended Albany schools and has been a member of Albany Police department 16 years, exchanges his post here as inspector for a new job as director of the department of public safety for the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

The area includes the Mariana, Caroline and Marshall Islands.

Formerly Japanese mandated, the islands were taken in trust by the United Nations after World War II with the United States charged with their protection.

Lindh, 39, will be responsible for administration and training for the six police and fire departments in the islands, all manned by Micronesians.

Mrs. Lindh said the family will leave Saturday by plane from San Francisco. They will spend part of a day and night in Honolulu and will fly through the Trust Territory, landing in two places in the Marshalls, spending three days in Truk in the Carolines, and on to Guam and Saipan, arriving Feb. 6, their time, the family having crossed the International Dateline.

The family has sold their home at 1025 Santa Fe.

Mrs. Lindh is from San Joaquin Valley. She met Carl at San Jose State college. She has lived here since 1 1/2 years marriage 16 years ago. Carl is a member of the YMCA board, of Albany Rotary club, Albany Municipal Employees' association and Police and Fire Civil Service club.

Mrs. Lindh has been active in Marin school PTA and been a leader of Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies.

Eric, 14, a freshman at Albany High school, was YMCA counselor at camp last summer. Carla, 13, is a seventh grader at Marin and a member of Cadette Girl Scouts, who honored her at a farewell party last week. Kristen, nine, is a third grader at Marin and a Brownie Girl Scout.

Lindh was a patrolman six years, promoted to sergeant and juvenile officer and later to inspector.

RECEIVES DEGREE

Diane P. Stovel of Albany has received her BA degree in Social Science from Chico State college.

Funeral Held For Retired Capt. Les Varni

Funeral services were held yesterday at Ellis-Olson mortuary for Lawrence J. (Les) Varni, 75, retired captain of Albany Fire Department who began as a volunteer fire fighter in the early days of Albany.

Mr. Varni died last Friday at his home, 807 Cerrito, of an apparent heart attack.

A native of Oakland, Mr. Varni moved to Albany 30 years ago and at that time became a volunteer fireman. In 1936 he was made a captain. He retired from the department in 1958 after 38 years of service.

Mr. Varni was past president of Albany Tent of Maccabees, and a member of Albany lodge 686, F&AM, Albany chapter 550, OES, Alameda County Veteran Firemen's Association and the Ligure Club.

He leaves his widow, Edna Rose; a son, Wilbur H. Henchey of Richmond; two daughters, Ada Rose Tannehill of Albany and Edna Mae Vallelunga of Lafayette; a sister, Mary Delucchi of Martinez and a brother, Joe Varni of Newcastle.

Services were under the auspices of Albany lodge 686, F&AM.

NOTICE

Payment of Albany Business License Tax Deadline Jan. 31, 1969. All payments received after Jan. 31, 1969, will be delinquent, and a penalty of ten per cent or $3.00 minimum penalty will be added, whichever shall be greater.

Native Daughters Rummage Sale

Albany Parlor 260, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will hold a rummage sale, Thursday, Feb. 6, next door to Ferreira's Plumbing shop, 1724 San Pablo Ave., Berkeley, starting at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Linda Henderson is chairman, and the proceeds will help the Parlor's various charitable projects.

OPEN LETTER TO ALBANY

Now that the holidays are over and our children are back in school, Albany School Resource volunteers invite more of you to join us. Giving some time to the schools, on a regular basis, is a good way to enhance the quality of your children's education.

There are many ways to help—with the teacher in the classroom, with tutoring of individuals, with typing, as a specialist.

The needs are many. At the high school, the mathematics department has students in need of drill in the basics on a one-to-one basis. Individual help in all subjects is needed for students for whom English is a second language. Both the home economics and chemistry departments have asked for volunteers to help set up demonstrations. Many departments could use help with typing. No special training is needed in any of these areas. What matters is your interest in students and the schools.

Perhaps your time is limited and you are a specialist in an area like black history, art or chemistry. Perhaps you have

Council Will Protest Ban on Backyard Burning

Albany City Council Monday night decided to have Mayor Richard Clark write a letter to Bay Area Air Pollution Control district protesting a possible ban on backyard burning in one and two-family dwellings.

Fire Commissioner Lewis Howell will discuss the situation with Fire Chief Gerald Browne and report next Monday night. A public hearing will be held Wednesday morning, Feb. 5.

Howell said Albany has restricted burning to three days a week and to stop it entirely would work a hardship. In addition, if burning in the yard is stopped, he said, people will burn their trash in fireplaces.

Two matters on the agenda were held over because Councilman George Hein and Administrative Officer James B. Turner were out of town and City Clerk John Klavohn was out with a muscle spasm in his back.

A public hearing on a variance request from Ellis-Olson mortuary was held over to Feb. 10 and first reading of the Animal Control ordinance was postponed until next Monday.

A resolution commending Inspector Carl Lindh was adopted. City Attorney Lawrence D. Saler was asked to prepare resolutions concerning the appointment of Vera Trapp as public health nurse and urging full appropriation in Sacramento for library services.

Letters from Sigrid Oakley and an Oakland woman were filed. Mrs. Oakley thanked Council for a resolution of commendation. The Oakland woman, Muriel Newberry, expressed concern over increased deductions for policemen's paychecks, urged increases in salary to compensate for the difference.

Council confirmed an extension of a leave of absence for Johnnie Grisham to Jan. 24.

Les Johnson, regional manager of Bay Cablevision, was allowed to report on his firm.

A resolution from Daly City asking for tax relief for California property owners was held over because Councilman H. F. Call is preparing a similar resolution for consideration by Albany Council.

Jerry Talley announced the annual Police Reserve dinner at Kirby's this Saturday night when the last of the original reserves, Lauri O'Jala of 633 Talbot, will be retiring after 26 years.

Mayor Clark announced a work session last night. The first half was to be a personnel session and the final portion devoted to consideration of Turner's financial statement for the first half of Albany's fiscal year.

The meeting adjourned in memory of Fire Capt. Les Varni, whose funeral was yesterday.

Fifth Annual Fish Fry At Cornell Friday, Feb. 7

Friday, Feb. 7, has been set for the fifth annual Fish Fry sponsored by the Albany High School Band Boosters, at Cornell school cafeteria.

General chairman Harold and Marguerite Van Coops named their crew of assistants at a meeting held this week.

Ken Forry, superintendent of Albany schools, will again perform master chef duties, assisted by Bob Onweller, Hans Schwab and Walt Corvello.

Jerome Blank will be Maitre D' with Eldon Wolf as traffic coordinator.

Other important assistants who will help serve the more than 900 seafood enthusiasts expected to attend the popular community affair are: Art and Sue Overman, presidents of the Band Boosters; Ted and Joyce Valli, Vic and Elena Sannazzaro, Joe and Norma Cravotto, Guy and Charlotte Laverty, Muriel Blank, Marlon and Eldon Wolf, Frank and Dorothy McKenna, Bob and Peggy Torstrom, Jack and Ruby Simmons, Bill and Helen McKenna, Donna and Gene Hellwig, and Ernie and Barbara Jaramillo.

Ernest Douglas will be in charge of entertainment.

Serving will be from 5 until 7 p.m. Take-out dinners will again be available. Tickets are being sold by members of the AHS band and are $1 for all ages.

Troop 19 Receives Thanks

At their annual Christmas party, Troop 19 closed out a very active and productive 1968 program with a Troop Good Turn.

This year the Scouts resolved that instead of interchanging gifts between troop members, they would donate their gifts to the crippled children of the San Francisco Shriner's hospital.

The troop has received a note of appreciation from the Board of Governors of the hospital. This is an appropriate send off for an even better 1969 program.

ALBANY'S LYNN DAVIS will be on TV between 4 and 5 p.m. this Friday, Jan. 31, on Adele Hall's program on UHF Channel 36.

IT'S A WONDER the rains of last week didn't turn to snow. Great scott, but it was cold.

QUITE A FEW women were delighted to receive envelopes in the mail recently with stickers in the corner stating, "To My Love." The letters contained red heart invitations to the Rotary Valentine Party Tuesday night, Feb. 4, at Spenger's. Harold Olson is chairman. Special guests will be Soroptimists, Soroptimists and Rotarians.

AS OF FRIDAY, about 50 percent of the fellows at the Fire Department had been down with flu and Paul Hogue and Bill Ledgerwood were home sick. Capt. Raul Miranda says they lived in such close quarters at the old building that it would have run through the whole department. He credits the new dormitories and adequate space between beds for keeping it down this year.

IT WOULD be too bad if anyone got the idea it took 20 minutes for the ambulance from Albany to get to a person nearly bleeding to death. We didn't state as much last week in the item about Postman Lester Springer, but it was NOT the Albany ambulance involved.

IN CASE our youngest tells you her mommy is going to have a baby, it ain't true. The two of us were invited to a baby shower at Pearl Carnes' home the other night. The gals said they'd have to keep track of the presents because, traditionally, the giver of the seventh gift opened would be next to have a baby. Lisa handed the honor guest, Mrs. Karen Francis, her gifts. She would love to have a baby brother, so she arranged for ours to be the seventh opened. Lisa believes in fairies, Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny. Now she's looking for the stork.

THE SECOND Lions' Club Crab Feed Friday night was a whopping success and it is to be hoped this becomes an annual event with the Lions.

MARIN EDGED CORNELL, 44-38, at the March of Dimes basketball game, sponsored by the American Legion Saturday night. It was an exciting game with Cornell in front most of the time. Marin and Cornell parents, one group on each side of the gym, screamed for their boys and seemed to enjoy the rivalry. Don't know how it came out financially, but sportwise it was a great evening of entertainment.

DEATH OF A TREE—A 35-foot Cypress tree in the garden of Ellis-Olson mortuary, which May planted as a five-inch sapling, was a victim of high winds Saturday night. Everyone will miss the tree, which was usually full of singing and/or chirping birds.

Sales Methods Challenged

Judge Lyle Cook, Presiding Judge of the Superior Court in Alameda County has ordered Filiter Queen of Hayward, Inc., into Alameda County Superior Court on Jan. 29 for a hearing to restrain the vacuum cleaner sales company from using a referral system of selling door to door in the East Bay area.

Lawyers of the Legal Aid Society of Alameda County are also trying to get relief for the people who have already incurred large debts as a result of their dealings with this firm. They filed the suit on behalf of three low income families, other purchasers of Filiter Queen vacuum cleaners, and on behalf of the general public.

The 'referral' system was banned by the State in November, 1968. This is a sales technique where a prospective buyer is told he gets money back on the high price of his vacuum cleaner for each new potential customer he introduces to the company. Plaintiffs claim that Filiter Queen of Hayward, Inc., designs its home sales especially to take advantage of low income persons, to whom installment payments over a long term seem particularly attractive.

Governor Reagan In Oakland Feb. 1

Governor Ronald Reagan will be key-note speaker for the California Young Republicans' convention to be held in Oakland Jan. 31 through Feb. 2 at the Edgewater Inn.

The Governor will speak at the banquet Saturday, Feb. 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the Matador Room. Tickets to the banquet are available to the public at $9 per person and may be obtained by contacting Republican headquarters at 652-2289.

Mike Carrington, president of the Alameda County Young Republicans commented that "The Dinner is a real bargain compared to the $100 a plate gala that the Governor addressed in Oakland in October. This is a great opportunity for the people in the Oakland area to see and hear the Governor, and have a fine meal at an inexpensive price."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the day and year first above written.

HEART RESEARCH TOUR FOR COUNTY STUDENTS

High school students with a scientific bent will have an opportunity to take a close look at research laboratories at the Children's Medical Center of Northern California on Feb. 5, in the Heart Research Day Tour sponsored annually by the Alameda County Heart association.

Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Kelley, Ph. D., of Berkeley, the tour has been organized as a part of the public education program of the Heart Association. Chapters of the American Heart association will be conducting similar tours during February, nationally designated as Heart Month.

"Our purpose is to introduce the science students to the laboratory situation and to stimulate their interest in scientific research," said Miss Kelley. "Two students from each high school in Alameda County have been invited to participate and it is quite evident that all 60 places will be

Albany Rotary Aids 'Hands Across the Sea'

The Rotary World Community Service Committee of District 516 which the Albany Rotary is in its realm, is embarking on a District wide project to help the children of the St. Joseph's Orphanage in Marlapuram, Cuddapah, India, and hospitals, clinics and institutions throughout the world.

Funds collected will be used to ship the donated pharmaceutical and medical supplies to be distributed by Rotary clubs in Southern India. With 4,000 California Rotarians in District 516, the response anticipated will be tremendous.

Bob Carlson, president of Albany Rotary club, stated, "I am promoting this most worthwhile project during the first two meetings in February. Pocket money, various fines and the generosity of our members will make this a success. Unique 'Coin Banks' have been supplied by our District Governor, Cliff Dochterman, of the Berkeley Rotary club."

Carlson went on to say, "Anyone wishing to support this humanitarian project could send his contribution to Albany Rotary Club, Box 6004, Albany, Calif. 94706."

The Hands Across the Sea is the first joint club international program of the Northern California Rotary clubs in several years.

IN PEACE CORPS — Josine Ann Kister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Kister of 631 Curtis St., has been named a Peace Corps volunteer after completing 12 weeks of training at Teachers College, Columbia University in New York City. She is one of 140 volunteers who will teach academic subjects in Kenya's secondary schools. Josine, Albany High school graduate, received her BA degree in economics from Stanford University.

John N. Kister On Honor Roll

John N. Kister of 631 Curtis St., Albany, is included on the fall term scholastic honor roll announced by Oregon State University. He is a junior in the School of Science.

The straight-A honor roll of the university listed 166 students. Another 907 made the B-plus or better honor listing. The honor roll students represent 37 states and 16 foreign countries.

ALBANY HOMES NEEDED FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

Mrs. Edgar Volz, chairman of homes for American Field Service visitors to Albany, is looking for families willing to share their homes for 10 months with a foreign boy or girl.

The family must be in good general health with both parents present. A part-time working mother is acceptable.

An effort is made to match interests of visitor and host family. For instance, a musical foreign student is placed with a family interested in music.

A member of the host family should be at least a junior—preferably a senior next year—at Albany High school and that person should be planning to continue his or her education.

Wealth is not a requirement, Mrs. Volz stressed. The need is for wholesome, happy, adjustable families willing to cope with individual differences. The idea is not to Americanize the visitor, but to broaden international understanding.

Anyone interested is urged to contact Mrs. Volz at 525-4912 or AFS President Mrs. Jack Morrow, 526-6924.

Albany Designer Working On 'Blaze of Fashions'

The sixth annual "Blaze of Fashions" show presented by the Negro community for the benefit of Alameda County March of Dimes will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 23, in the Churchill Room of Hotel Claremont.

A collection of spring fashions by top American designers will be shown.

Cochairmen of the committee for the sixth year will be Mrs. James Bryant, Oakland civic leader and first Mother of the Year, and Mrs. Howard Alexander, also of Oakland.

Coordinator this year will be Barbara (Mrs. Ray) Young, owner of B-Young Fashions in Albany.

Special guest model will be Mrs. Earl (Fatha) Hines of Oakland.

The 1969 Theme Girl for the show will be Rosetta Caldwell, four, of Oakland, a patient at the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center.

Belva Davis Moore, San Francisco television personality, will again be commentator. Mrs. Martha Ann Hilliard of Berkeley is ticket chairman. Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. Geneva Barnes, both of Oakland, are in charge of tickets for the $700 autumn-haze mink stole.

Mrs. William Edwards of Oakland and Mrs. George Lewis of Hayward are in charge of programs. Mrs. Tempy Phillips is committee secretary. Other committee members are Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Rosetta Barsock, both of Oakland.

Entertainment will feature Pamela Young Bailey, ballet dancer; Walter Morris, violinist, and Chuck Cannady, pianist.

Women's, men's and children's spring fashions will be shown.

For reservations or tickets ($2 each), contact Mrs. Bryant at 653-5205; Mrs. Alexander at 653-4042; or Barbara Young, 527-1734.

Proceeds will go to the Birth Defects Center supported by the March of Dimes at Children's Hospital Medical Center in Oakland.

Blaze of Fashions

H. F. Call Heads Heart Campaign

Appointment of H. F. (Red) Call, owner of Call Brothers' Jewelers, as chairman of 1969 Heart-Days-for-Business canvass in Albany was announced today by Maurice B. Smith, CLU, county Heart-Days-for-Business chairman. This is a solicitation of local commercial and professional establishments affording local businessmen an opportunity to contribute to the annual Heart Fund campaign.

The business canvass will be conducted here during the five-day period starting Feb. 3, Call stated. Working with Call will be the Heart Salesman who will visit offices, businesses, stores, and shopping centers in Albany. Volunteers are being recruited now to assist in this important community activity.

The 1969 Heart Fund campaign will reach its climax during the weekend of Heart Sunday, Feb. 16, when about 15,000 volunteers in Alameda County will visit their neighbors to distribute educational information and to receive Heart Fund contributions. Individuals who would like to help with the business campaign should contact Call or the Alameda County Heart Association, 444-3568.

Don't Deduct That $70

Some taxpayers are computing their State personal income tax liability and then deducting the $70 property tax refund recently established under the provisions of Proposition 1A, said Martin Huff, Executive Officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

"This is a serious matter because we cannot allow that deduction and, by the time we locate the error and notify the taxpayer, it could well be too late for him to apply for his refund through his county assessor.

"The only way the property tax refund can be obtained is through the county assessor, not through deduction from an income tax liability," Huff stressed.

Forms for property tax refund can be obtained from the county assessor, along with instructions for filing.

Nothing unlocks a doghouse like mink . . . but it costs. There's a way. Get rid of your second car and use AC Transit. (U.S. figures show the cost of operating a car is almost 12 cents a mile). With the money you save you can buy mink . . . and win a wife.

For Albany commuters the private car is the most expensive, least convenient way to commute to San Francisco. AC Transit offers fast, frequent, comfortable service with the Route G line. Check the map for running times. For details call Transit Information, 638-3535.

Watts-Haskell Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Charles Haskell
(Gayle Denise Watts)

Recent afternoon rites at Northbrae Community church mited in marriage Gayle Denise Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Watts of 718 Adams, and Ralph Charles Haskell, son of Ray Haskell of Red Bluff and the late Mrs. Haskell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length, A-line silk organza gown with high scoop neck, full lace-trimmed sleeves and lace around the bottom of the skirt. Small satin rosebuds trimmed the gown. Her long veil-train had matching rosebuds and she carried an arrangement of white rosebud and stephanotis.

Patricia Watts of Albany, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Other attendants included Miss Christine Bielski of Albany, Mrs. Tom Sanborn of El Cerrito, Miss June Pirie of Albany and Janis and Stacy King of Richmond were flower girls.

They wore floor length Grecian styled crepe gowns with loosely draped bows on the shoulders. The maid of honor wore hot pink and other attendants, lime green.

Ray Serb of El Cerrito was best man. Ushers were Bob Serb of El Cerrito, Tom Sanborn of El Cerrito, Frank Watts of Albany, brother of the bride, and Danny Sanborn of El Cerrito was ring bearer.

Following the wedding, a reception for 200 guests was held at Eagles hall. The mother of the bride received guests wearing a gown of pink lace with beige accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Their wedding trip north became near-disaster when they were marooned at her parents' cabin at Forest Hills on the Russian River. Eighty feet of the road was washed out and they were rescued by the Highway Patrol.

A graduate of Albany High school, the bride is employed by Children's Hospital Medical Center. Her husband, graduate of Albany High school and member of the U.S. Army Reserves, is employed at Albany Body Shop.

Naomi Price
Lecture
In Berkeley

Naomi Price

How to find in God the same joy the writer of the Psalms knew, will be the theme of a public Christian Science lecture to be given here Thursday, Jan. 30, at 8 p.m., by Naomi Price, CSB, of London, England.

The lecture titled, "Christian Science: Religion of Health and Happiness," will be delivered in Second Church of Christ, Scientist, 1521 Spruce St., Berkeley. It will last about an hour, and is open to the public free of charge. Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Berkeley, is the sponsor.

Mrs. Price is a teacher of Christian Science as well as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship. She entered the healing ministry of Christian Science more than 20 years ago, after a career in social service. She is currently on tour throughout the United States, Canada, Ireland, and Great Britain.

Newman Hall in Berkeley was the scene of the recent wedding and reception of Jutta Kirsch of Francisco St., daughter of Mrs. Marie Rutter of Germany, and Gordon William Frankie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Frankie of Coventry Road, Kensington.

Given in marriage by Robert Lambert, the bride wore a short white lace dress and shoulder-length veil with headpiece of lace petals edged with pearls. She carried white roses and orchids.

Jeanette Deran, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Laura Allen was bridesmaid. They wore lavender dresses and carried pink baby roses.

Warren Brunetti of Berkeley was best man. Ushers were Hank Catalane of Moraga and Elliot Klugman of Berkeley.

Following a wedding trip to San Andreas Island in the Caribbean, they went to Costa Rica, Central America, where the bridegroom will be engaged in research for the Organization for Tropical Studies.

A 1958 graduate of Albany High school, he received his Ph.D. from the University of California in Berkeley, where he was a member of the Honor Society.

His bride, who arrived five years ago from Germany, lived for a year in New York.

HELP NEEDED FOR EASTER SEAL MAILING

Thoughts of Easter have come early for volunteers at the Alameda County Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults as 275,000 envelopes need addressing now at the Rehabilitation Center, 2757 Telegraph Avenue, for the annual campaign.

The early date for Easter in 1969 has prompted this advance appeal for help, as the mailing is scheduled for February. Persons interested in addressing and assembling envelopes should contact the Rehabilitation Center, 835-2131.

Because of the greater demand for services at the modern Rehabilitation Center, the need for funds is more urgent than ever. It is not unusual in the average day to see the rehabilitative facilities used by stroke patients of all ages, young athletes exercising injured limbs or accident victims regaining strength.

The annual drive will benefit the Center, which serves 320 patients a month who have been handicapped through injury or illness. The rehabilitation program includes speech, physical and occupational therapy, social service counseling, employment guidance, medical direction and evaluation.

An affiliate of the California and National Easter Seal Societies for Crippled Children and Adults, the Alameda County Society serves all handicapped persons regardless of age, cause of crippling, race, religion or economic status.

ABC CHAPTER

ABC chapter of the Children's Home Society will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Herbert Berkorn, 32 Kensington Rd., Kensington, Tuesday, Feb. 3, to discuss the Annual Spring Luncheon and Card Party. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. E. Webster, 817 Oak St., Albany. Children's Home Society is a member of the United Crusade.

IOOF

Berkeley lodge 270, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet Thursday, Jan. 30, at 8 p.m. at Berkeley Odd Fellows' Temple, 2288 Fulton Street. Noble Grand Albert P. Brewer will preside. The regular Fifth Thursday refreshments will be served.
